INSIDE

INSIGHT

Whose bill?

Singapore is struggling with an issue that many other nations face: Who should pay the cost of health care for foreign workers — their employers or the government?

PAGES 10

REVIEW

No right to vote

In a country that sets itself up as a paragon of democracy, many black Americans and other minorities face hurdles when they want to vote.

PAGES 17

SPORTS

War on doping

The US Senate is drafting two Bills to deal with bloated steroid cheats and complacent sports officials who let them get away.

PAGES 23

MONEY

Star buy

Star TV gets a firm foothold in Indonesia by buying a 20 per cent stake in its national ANTV network.

SPECIAL REPORT

50 YOUNG PEOPLE TO WATCH

They're all below 25, and are putting Singapore's name on the world map in a big way. But hardly any of them ace their exams. Instead, they've veered off the beaten track, weathered bumpy times, and have come up trumps.
